long and perhaps the most suitable under the circumstances but the Agents should be responsible for shortage & though not for losses but they should at the same time send the shipping bill insured against risk also. This is the understanding there is then no objection in authorising Messrs Combs & Co to pay the freight bills on production of shipping documents & (see)

No general order can be issued to Combs & Co asking them to pay on invoices & shipping documents presented. A separate order will be necessary in every case. When the Dy sends any order to Messrs Bakers & Co he should also ask the Comptroller to issue instructions to Messrs Combs & Co to pay a definite amount on invoices & shipping documents. The pay to will then be arranged but the Dy will have to send a certificate to the Comptroller afterwards that the invoiced articles ^{have been} only received in full. Pending receipt of such a certificate the amount will be under objection on the Comptroller's books -

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE,

No 5429/385

'Bangalore, 13th December 1910. 19

From

J WEIR, Esq, M A ,

Inspector General of Education in Mysore

Edn 5429/385

To

C S Balasundaram Iyer Esquire B A ,

Offg Secretary to the Government of H H the Maharaja of Mysore, General and Revenue Departments, Bangalore.

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No 3582/Edn 59-10-2 dated 29th October 1910 stating that arrangements may be made for the promptest possible payment on receipt of goods, I have the honour to inform you that this does not at all meet the requirements of the case.

Messrs Baker & Co complain that they give us the usual rates for cash payment when the goods leave them, not when they arrive here, and that they do not receive payment till long afterwards. Properly speaking the money for the goods at these rates should be paid before they leave the stores of the firm. There is nothing unusual in the firm asking for payment by our bankers on receipt of the shipping documents. The sole responsibility for the goods after they are shipped rests upon the purchaser and his only protection is to insure as far as any insurance company will accept the risk.

Under the circumstances I recommend that the Comptroller may be directed to instruct Messrs Coutts and Co to pay their bills on presentation of a copy of the invoice with shipping bills. Messrs Baker & Co say that this will save Government the trouble of sending sending money on to them in advance with the order.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Iwan

Inspector General.
